

If you vote the way Tweed Water Alliance suggests, you are voting:

1
Group D
Chris Cherry, our current mayor. Dedicated to equity and fairness, she's the pick of the candidates in terms of proven experience and expertise in the business of council. Click here for her policies.

2
Group A
Bill Fenelon, Greens aligned, advocate for the return of a rail service in the region. Solid environmental credentials.

3
Group B
Meredith Dennis, driving force behind Wedgetail retreat and an advocate for community support and services. Smart and business minded.

4
Group F
Letitia Kelly, strong voice for women and the indigenous community. Strong in the sporting community and youth work, indigenous health. Will work towards supporting community services and infrastructure.

5
Group I
The Greens, led by Nola Firth. Strong environmental credentials with a solid policy platform. Carrying on Katie Milne's role. Click here for The Echo article.

6
Group L
Labor led by Reece Byrnes. The presence of Labor as a mainstream party is not a bad alternative.

There are seven councillors to be elected. A chopped-up mock-up of the ballot paper is on the next page. It's actually long and skinny. So you've got an idea what it looks like.

- You can vote either above the line and number at least 1 square to indicate your preference.
- or
- You can vote below the line but you must number at least four squares.

Beware the candidates who are there for naked self-interest, religious fervour, greed or conservative party glory to support the rich. There's a few turncoats in there too. They don't care about you and they're the ones all over everything like a cheap suit with the cashed-up campaigns. "Just business" doesn't cut it anymore.

Vote for a sustainable economy. One that doesn't shovel money into the hands of the already rich cronies.
